

TRIED TO STOP POLICE RALLS.

(Continued from Page 1.)

A broad smile appeared on the faces of many of those in the audience, and there was a suspicion of a chuckle at Capt. Doherty's expense. The man who had been so much in the hands of his mustache and the palm of his hand to straighten out his features.

The Commissioners, and particularly President Martin, were evidently disconcerted, and when it was finally announced by the latter that an adjournment would be taken, the room was speedily cleared.

The Commissioners retired to their private rooms and declined to be interviewed. It was Commissioner Martin's first big case, and the same was true of Commissioner Murray.

Murray and Kerwin Puzzled.

They didn't seem to understand the thing at all or appreciate the prominence of the thing which had just occurred. Commissioners Martin and Sheehan, however, were evidently greatly upset by the occurrence, and the former especially looked as dark as a thunder cloud.

Just before the adjournment was taken, Capt. Doherty arose to state that an impression had been created by some thing which appeared in the newspapers that he was going to make some startling disclosures about the disposition of tribute money should be pushed too closely by the Commissioners, and that nothing which he had said, either in public or private, could give rise to any such report.

The Commissioners pay no attention to any such report, and, coming from such a source, they are not worth considering.

The Trials Resumed.

It was just 2 o'clock, when the little difficulty having been settled in the Superior Court, Mr. Wellman appeared in the trial-room. Fifteen minutes later the Commissioners filed in and took the places they had vacated so hurriedly a few hours before.

None of the counsel for the defense was present. President Martin looked uncomfortable and acted nervously. Gen. Kerwin was the only one of the Board who appeared to be at ease.

At 2:25 President Martin directed Complaint Clerk Peterson to call the names of the accused officers and to respond to the questions of the President.

Martin with an effort to be stern, called Capt. Doherty, and the latter continued, "where is your lawyer?"

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

DEBS'S THREAT IN VAIN.

Work Goes Right on at the Stock Yards in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The Debs manifesto, resulting in the Overton edict, warning all railroad men at the stock yards to desert from work, or to be branded as scabs, seemed to have little effect to-day on the men to whom it was addressed, or upon the situation at the stock yards generally.

Railroad employees returned to their work as usual, switching was continued, and the packers seemed inclined to treat the matter as a joke.

The receipt of different packing houses showed that business was improving. There came in 13,000 head of cattle, 2,000 hogs, 3,000 sheep.

The stock yards company will endeavor to solve the problem of securing protection for its men outside of working hours by lodging and boarding them in its own buildings. Cows were placed in some of the houses to-day.

The rough treatment of workmen by strikers still goes on, and compelling work is being used on heads nearly as often as on trains.

PERHAPS THEY ARE DAZED.

Trade Organizations Do Not Criticize the Tariff Disagreement.

The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Stock Exchange, Produce Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

The Board of Trade, Stock Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

The Board of Trade, Stock Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

The Board of Trade, Stock Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

THE TRIALS CONTINUE.

President Martin directed Complaint Clerk Peterson to call the names of the accused officers and to respond to the questions of the President.

Martin with an effort to be stern, called Capt. Doherty, and the latter continued, "where is your lawyer?"

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

DEBS'S THREAT IN VAIN.

Work Goes Right on at the Stock Yards in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The Debs manifesto, resulting in the Overton edict, warning all railroad men at the stock yards to desert from work, or to be branded as scabs, seemed to have little effect to-day on the men to whom it was addressed, or upon the situation at the stock yards generally.

Railroad employees returned to their work as usual, switching was continued, and the packers seemed inclined to treat the matter as a joke.

The receipt of different packing houses showed that business was improving. There came in 13,000 head of cattle, 2,000 hogs, 3,000 sheep.

The stock yards company will endeavor to solve the problem of securing protection for its men outside of working hours by lodging and boarding them in its own buildings. Cows were placed in some of the houses to-day.

The rough treatment of workmen by strikers still goes on, and compelling work is being used on heads nearly as often as on trains.

PERHAPS THEY ARE DAZED.

Trade Organizations Do Not Criticize the Tariff Disagreement.

The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Stock Exchange, Produce Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

The Board of Trade, Stock Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

The Board of Trade, Stock Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

The Board of Trade, Stock Exchange and Maritime Exchange, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that no arrangements have been made for an expression of the views of their respective organizations on the disagreement report of the conference on the tariff bill at Washington.

THE TRIALS CONTINUE.

President Martin directed Complaint Clerk Peterson to call the names of the accused officers and to respond to the questions of the President.

Martin with an effort to be stern, called Capt. Doherty, and the latter continued, "where is your lawyer?"

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

He stated that he was in business in New York and was attending regularly to his affairs. Werner thinks it most probable that the report was made by some detective who had not been able to find him, and he said he had made no effort at all to avoid being recognized. While the detectives have not troubled him, Werner says that he has been offered by some of the Lexow Committee members documents in the way of promises of money, not to appear before the Police Commissioners, but to "take a little fresh air in the country."

Werner has not run away.

He is busy with some matter pertaining to the case, but I expect him here every minute, was the answer.

"The Board," said President Martin, "has been ready since 2 o'clock, and we don't propose to wait any longer. You lawyer know the time, and should be present. Read the complaint, Mr. Clerk."

Capt. Doherty and to this Washington, D. C., and to take a little fresh air in the country."

WERNER HAS NOT RUN AWAY.

Ready to Repeat His Lexow Committee Testimony.

Carl Werner, who testified before the Lexow Committee, called at "The Evening World" office this afternoon and denied flatly the report that he had left the city to avoid testifying before the Police Commissioners' investigation.

THE THIRD WITH WASHINGTON.

Capt. Ward's Giants Out for Another Lively Game.

Tiernan Gets Back to His Old Post in Right Field.

The chief topic of discussion in financial circles was the resumption of gold exports. Heidelberg, Kellheimer & Co. shipped $50,000 on the steamer Columbia to-day, and Lazard Freres have ordered $1,000,000 additional for to-morrow's steamer.

These amounts are being forwarded as arbitrage transactions in sterling between New York and Berlin, and the margin of profit is exceedingly narrow.

In some quarters it is asserted that they are made on direct order from Austria, but any event it is believed that the movement will not reach extensive proportions.

The only solicitude about the matter is in regard to the Treasury gold reserve, which will be again drawn down without any substantial progress making towards a solution of the tariff muddle.

FLUSHING ENTRIES.

RACE TRACK, FLUSHING, July 19.—The entries for to-morrow's races follow:

First Race: Two-year-olds, selling, six furlongs. Entries: 1. Hambleton, 2. Piquette, 3. Piquette, 4. Piquette, 5. Piquette, 6. Piquette, 7. Piquette, 8. Piquette, 9. Piquette, 10. Piquette, 11. Piquette, 12. Piquette, 13. Piquette, 14. Piquette, 15. Piquette, 16. Piquette, 17. Piquette, 18. Piquette, 19. Piquette, 20. Piquette, 21. Piquette, 22. Piquette, 23. Piquette, 24. Piquette, 25. Piquette, 26. Piquette, 27. Piquette, 28. Piquette, 29. Piquette, 30. Piquette, 31. Piquette, 32. Piquette, 33. Piquette, 34. Piquette, 35. Piquette, 36. Piquette, 37. Piquette, 38. Piquette, 39. Piquette, 40. Piquette, 41. Piquette, 42. Piquette, 43. Piquette, 44. Piquette, 45. Piquette, 46. Piquette, 47. Piquette, 48. Piquette, 49. Piquette, 50. Piquette, 51. Piquette, 52. Piquette, 53. Piquette, 54. Piquette, 55. Piquette, 56. Piquette, 57. Piquette, 58. Piquette, 59. Piquette, 60. Piquette, 61. Piquette, 62. Piquette, 63. Piquette, 64. Piquette, 65. Piquette, 66. Piquette, 67. Piquette, 68. Piquette, 69. Piquette, 70. Piquette, 71. Piquette, 72. Piquette, 73. Piquette, 74. Piquette, 75. Piquette, 76. Piquette, 77. Piquette, 78. Piquette, 79. Piquette, 80. Piquette, 81. Piquette, 82. Piquette, 83. Piquette, 84. Piquette, 85. Piquette, 86. Piquette, 87. Piquette, 88. Piquette, 89. Piquette, 90. Piquette, 91. Piquette, 92. Piquette, 93. Piquette, 94. Piquette, 95. Piquette, 96. Piquette, 97. Piquette, 98. Piquette, 99. Piquette, 100. Piquette, 101. Piquette, 102. Piquette, 103. Piquette, 104. Piquette, 105. Piquette, 106. Piquette, 107. Piquette, 108. Piquette, 109. Piquette, 110. Piquette, 111. Piquette, 112. Piquette, 113. Piquette, 114. Piquette, 115. Piquette, 116. Piquette, 117. Piquette, 118. Piquette, 119. Piquette, 120. Piquette, 121. Piquette, 122. Piquette, 123. Piquette, 124. Piquette, 125. Piquette, 126. Piquette, 127. Piquette, 128. Piquette, 129. Piquette, 130. Piquette, 131. Piquette, 132. Piquette, 133. Piquette, 134. Piquette, 135. Piquette, 136. Piquette, 137. Piquette, 138. Piquette, 139. Piquette, 140. Piquette, 141. Piquette, 142. Piquette, 143. Piquette, 144. Piquette, 145. Piqu